Policy Details
1.	Principles This Policy sets the framework for fraud and corruption control across prevention, detection and response. All Council employees have an obligation to fulfil responsibilities in complying with all relevant policies and procedures to establish and promote an environment and culture of good governance and integrity. It is the responsibility of Councillors and Senior Management to demonstrate to employees and customers a genuine and strong commitment to fraud and corruption control. Council will provide information and training on fraud and corruption control and reporting through Council's induction process and will support this with training provided at least every three years. Council's Codes of Conduct clearly outline expected behaviours and the need for staff and Councillors to be fully aware of their responsibility to foster and develop the highest standards of integrity and to promote an ethical workplace culture.
2.	Responsibility for Fraud and Corruption Control

Council has a corporate responsibility and obligation to all of its stakeholders to ensure the good governance of the municipality. It is responsible for setting the highest standards of honesty and integrity to provide assurance to the community and for the management of the organisation.

Council will ensure that Management has appropriate resources to support the implementation of the Fraud and Corruption Control Framework for the prevention, detection and response to fraud and/or corruption.

2.1 Chief Executive Officer's Responsibilities

The Chief Executive Officer accepts ultimate responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud and is responsible for ensuring that appropriate and effective internal control systems are in place.

2.2 All Director's Responsibilities

All Directors must take responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud and for the implementation of the Risk Management Strategy. Similarly, managers, all staff and volunteers must share in that responsibility.

It is the responsibility of all Directors to ensure that there are mechanisms in place within their area of control to:

- Assess the risk of fraud;
- Promote employee and volunteer awareness of ethical principles subscribed to by Council; Educate employees and volunteers about fraud prevention and detection; and
- Facilitate the reporting of suspected fraudulent activities.

2.3 Director Corporate and Community Services' Responsibilities

The Director Corporate Services is responsible for:

- Assisting Directors and Managers in strengthening internal controls;
