Gifts (s3 LGA)	Means any disposition of property otherwise than by will made by a person to another person without consideration in money or money's worth or with inadequate consideration, including— (a) the provision of a service (other than volunteer labour); and (b) the payment of an amount in respect of a guarantee; and (c) the making of a payment or contribution at a fundraising
Gifts explanation to support definition Includes: Items and Services Benefits Hospitality	A gift is anything of monetary or other value that is offered by an external organisation or individual to a Councillor, Officer or contractor as a result of their role with the agency. It includes free or discounted items or services, benefits or hospitality that exceeds common courtesy. Examples include: • a bottle of wine or spirits • tickets to sporting events • gift Voucher • corporate hospitality at a corporate facility • discounted products for personal use • use of a holiday home • free or discounted travel • free training excursions • door prize or voucher if an individual has not personally paid to attend.
Gift disclosure threshold	A disclosable gift means any gift valued at or above $500 or a higher prescribed amount that a relevant person received in the preceding five years if:

	 the relevant person was a Councillor, member of Council staff or member of a delegated committee at the time the gift was received, or the gift was an election campaign donation.
	If multiple gifts are received from a person, they must be treated as a single gift with an aggregate value.
	A gift includes any good or service (other than volunteer labour) that is provided for free or at a discounted price. It includes a payment or contribution at a fundraising function.
	A failure to comply is an offence that can be prosecuted in court. If found guilty a fine of up to 60 penalty units may be imposed, the value of the gift must be paid to the Council and the Councillor may be required to pay the costs of the prosecution.
Items or services	For example:
Benefits	 Christmas hamper desk calendar box of chocolates bottle of wine commemorative object door prize at a function tree lopping house painting For example: preferential treatment privileged access access to discount or loyalty programs
	promise of a new job
Hospitality	Hospitality is considered a gift unless the hospitality was reasonable and you were attending the function or event in an official Council capacity. • Reasonableness test: the hospitality must be of a standard and type that an independent observer would consider appropriate and not excessive. Official capacity test: it must clearly be your duty as a Councillor to attend the relevant function or event.
	Hospitality that exceeds common courtesy includes:
	A 'fine dining and wines' working lunch at another

Policy	Details
1.	Scope
	This policy sets out the Councils standards and procedures for responding to gift of applies to all Councillors of West Wimmera Shire Council.
2.	Aim
	The aim of this policy is to provide clear guidelines to ensure Councillors are not compromised in the performance of their duties by accepting gifts or benefits which may result in a sense of obligation or could be interpreted as an attempt to influence. This helps to protect and promote public confidence in the integrity of the Council.
3.	Key principles a	nd accountabilities
	The key principles	s are:
	 Obligations: Councillors act in accordance with their respective obligations with goo governance. Public interest: Councillors have a duty to act in the public interest above their private interests when carrying out their official functions, in compliance with this policy. Culture of integrity: West Wimmera Shire Council fosters a culture of integrity whereby Councillors declare all gifts.
		The Council's risk in relation to gift offers are assessed, managed and
	Accountability	ty: The Council's procedures are transparent and accountable. e accountable for declaring all gifts , and declaring declined gifts , or where an exception applies under this policy.

Consistent with the Minimum Accountabilities

The Victorian Public Sector Commission has set binding minimum accountabilities for the appropriate management of gifts, benefit and hospitality. The Council's policy is consistent with the model policy on the Victorian Public Sector Commission website.

This policy also incorporates the recommendations from the IBAC review of Local Government Integrity Frameworks 2019. A self-assessment was undertaken in 2019 and reported to Council's Audit & Risk Committee. This Policy has included all the recommendations for good practice.

Conflicts of Interest in Local Government – Victorian Ombudsman - That councils have clear rules on accepting gifts and hospitality. All gifts and hospitality, however trivial, should be declared.

4. Prohibited gifts

Any Gifts that is inconsistent with community values and could bring a Councillor's integrity, or that of the Council into disrepute (eg. if accepting a gift could be perceived as an endorsement of a product or service) must be declined. All Councillors must refuse the following gift offers:

4.1 Gift Disclosure threshold

Councillors are prohibited from accepting gifts that equal or exceed the gift disclosure threshold unless they know the name and address of the person making the gift.

4.2 Anonymous Gifts

Section 137 of the Act states

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a Councillor must not accept, directly or indirectly, a gift for the benefit of the Councillor the amount or value of which is equal to or exceeds the gift disclosure threshold unless—
- (a) the name and address of the person making the gift are known to the Councillor; or
- (b) at the time when the gift is made—
 - (i) the Councillor is given the name and address of the person making the gift; and
 - (ii) the Councillor reasonably believes that the name and address so given are the true name and address of the person making the gift.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

- (2) If the name and address of the person making the gift are not known to the Councillor for whose benefit the gift is intended, the Councillor is not in breach of subsection (1) if the Councillor disposes of the gift to the Council within 30 days of the gift being received.
- (3) In addition to the penalty specified in subsection (1), a Councillor who is found guilty of a breach of that subsection must pay to the Council the amount or value of the gift accepted in contravention of that subsection.

If for any reason a Councillor finds themselves in possession of a gift when they don't know the name and address of the person who gave the gift, the Councillor can give the gift to the Council within 30 days to avoid committing an offence.

4.3 Conflict of Interest

Councillors are prohibited from accepting a gift that creates a conflict of interest (real, potential or perceived).

4.3 Money or equivalent

This includes gift cards (eg. gift vouchers) or those easily converted into money (eg. shares).

4.4 Regulatory processes

Where a Council regulatory process is underway (eg a planning permit application; infringement appeal) a Councillor should not accept any gifts from any individual or group that may be involved with the permit application or regulatory activity.

4.5 Bequests/Wills

Any bequests to Councillors resulting from their position with Council must not be accepted. Arrangements may be made to donate the bequest to a charitable institution in the name of the donor or returned to the immediate family.

4.6 Fly buy/Frequent Flyer

Councillors must not collect rewards for personal use via rewards programs for any Council related transactions (i.e.: fly buys or frequent flyers). This relates to any claims for reimbursement of expenses incurred in accordance with the Council Expense Policy.

4.7 Procurement & Tender Process

Councillors must not accept any gifts, benefits and hospitality from a current or prospective supplier or any offer that is made during a procurement or tender process by a person or organisation involved in the process.

Where gifts are received or there are irregular approaches from suppliers, the Councillors must notify the Mayor and CEO and lodge a gift declaration form, so their refusal/action can be properly recorded.

Councillors must not visit a current supplier's premises without invitation and when not on official business.

4.8 Recording prohibited gift offers

To assist the Council in monitoring the frequency and nature of prohibited gifts, it is essential that all such offers are disclosed. Councillors must lodge a gift declaration form and details will be included in the register.

4.9 Consequence of accepting prohibited gifts

Accepting a prohibited gift may constitute misuse of a Councillor's position, and a breach of this policy may result in serious misconduct allegations for Councillors. In addition, if the gift was offered with the expectation of something in return, such as preferential treatment, accepting it may constitute a bribe or other form of corruption and lead to criminal prosecution.

5. Attempts to bribe

A Councillor who receives a gift offer that they believe is an attempted bribe must refuse the offer. They must:

- Immediately notify the CEO and lodge a gift declaration form, so their refusal can be properly recorded,
- Report the matter to the CEO (who should report any criminal or corrupt conduct to Victoria Police or the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission).
- A Councillor who believes another person within the Council may have solicited or been offered a bribe which they have not reported, must notify the CEO or report the matter as a public interest disclosure in accordance with Council's Public Interest Disclosure Procedures.

6. No soliciting of gifts

Councillors must not solicit gifts for themselves or anyone else, in any form. To do so may constitute misuse of their position. It may also constitute corruption and lead to criminal prosecution.

7.	Gestures that are	not gifts
	Individuals may accept gestures without approval or declaring the offer on the West Wimmera Shire Council Gift Register.
	An example of a gesture is an object with no monetary value such as flowers cut from the person's garden or homemade baked goods.
	A gesture may also be a souvenir received from a person or company as a result of attending a seminar or conference held, conducted or sponsored by them, for which an appropriate fee was paid to attend. Examples of this is are a tie, scarf, pen, cap, diary or mug.
	Door prizes and raffle prizes at functions or conferences are not considered a gift if the individual has personally paid for their attendance, or where the individual has paid for the raffle ticket.
8.	Gift offers
	Under $50	Councillors may accept token gift offers, benefits and hospitality, and these do not need to be declared or submitted to the CEO and included in the Gifts Register. However, should the combined total of offers made from a single source in a 12 months calendar year exceed $200, these gifts need to be declared or submitted to the CEO and included in the Gifts Register.
	Gift offers over $50	 Are likely to influence them, or would be perceived to influence them, in the course of their duties, Are likely to raise a conflict of interest, whether actual, potential or perceived, Are made by a person or organisation about which they will likely to make a decision, Are likely to be a bribe, Have no legitimate business benefit, Consist of money, gift vouchers or something easily converted into money, Could be perceived to be an endorsement of a product or service and will bring the individual or Council into disrepute, Are made in secret.
9.	Declaration of acc	epted/declined gifts
	Gifts over $	ne Gift Declaration form within seven days of the offer 50 remain the property of the Council until otherwise determined. s must be made on Council's declaration form.

10. Hospitality and Conferences

Gift offers of hospitality that exceed common courtesy must be avoided are often inconsistent with community expectations and have a high risk of creating a conflict of interest. Examples of gift offers of hospitality that exceed common courtesy include:

- Attending as a guest in a corporate box at the football or races
- Attending a concert or theatre event
- Attending an industry golf day at a reduced fee
- Being 'shouted' a meal at a restaurant
- Accepting discounted or complimentary tickets for a family member to attend the tennis

Reasonable hospitality does not need to be declared. See the definitions of Hospitality.

Conferences

Gift offers in relation to conferences (sponsored attendance, participation, travel or accommodation) must be declined unless there is:

- Clear justification, such as where the invitation is issued by a government department or the offeror is a peak body, and
- Prior written approval granted by the CEO (Mayor for Councillors, CEO for Mayor) or other responsible person. The signed and dated approval must be attached to the gift offer declaration and noted in the gifts register.

11. The G.I.F.T Test – Conflict of Interest and reputational risks

Deciding whether to accept an offer, Councillors should first consider if the offer could be perceived as influencing them in performing their duties or lead to reputational damage. The more valuable the offer, the more likely that a conflict of interest or reputational risk exists.

Developed by the Victorian State Services Commission, the GIFT test is a good example of what to think about when deciding whether to accept or decline a gift, benefit or hospitality.

G	Giver	Who is providing the gift, benefit or hospitality and what is their relationship to me? Does my role require me to select contractors, award grants, regulate industries or determine government policies? Could the person or organisation benefit from a decision I make?
-	Influence	Are they seeking to gain an advantage or influence my decisions or actions? Has the gift, benefit or hospitality been offered to me publicly or privately? Is it a courtesy or a token of appreciation or valuable non-token offer? Does its timing coincide with a decision I am about to make?
F	Favour	Are they seeking a favour in return for the gift, benefit or hospitality? Has the gift, benefit or hospitality been offered honestly? Has the person or organisation made several offers over the last 12 months? Would accepting it create an obligation to return a favour?
Т	Trust	Would accepting the gift, benefit or hospitality diminish public trust? How would the public view acceptance of this gift, benefit or hospitality? What would my colleagues, family, friends or associates think?

12. Corporate Gifts

In certain cases it may be appropriate for example as a thank you to provide corporate gifts to individuals or organisations on behalf of the Council. These should be limited to token gifts. Each case will be dealt with on its individual merits. The practice of giving gifts should not be common or frequent. Approval must be obtained from the CEO.

13. Donations and Bequests of Gifts to Council

West Wimmera Shire Council may be offered or bequested gifts or donations. Such gifts include:

- Real property
- Donations
- Art work
- Free Training & Services

West Wimmera Shire Council does not encourage and will not automatically accept a gift or donation. Given the potential for a vast range in terms of quality, relevance and the ongoing responsibility and maintenance requirements, Council reserves the right to decline the offer.

Bequests

In relation to Bequests, consideration will be given to:

- The expressed wishes and intentions of the bequestor, as outlined in the will, are paramount in determining the purpose for which the gift will be used.
- Where Council is unable to honour the intentions of the will, all appropriate legal measures will be taken to determine a purpose for the gift that most closely aligns to the bequestor's intentions.

14. Disclosure requirements

- A Councillor must disclose any gift valued at $500 or more in their biannual personal interest return unless the gift is from a family member.
- A Councillor who has a conflict of interest as a result of receiving a gift or gifts from a person must disclose the conflict of interest in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Governance Rules.
- Gifts above the gift disclosure threshold that are election campaign donations must be disclosed in an election campaign donation return.
- Gifts must also be disclosed in the Councillor gift register.

15. Gifts, Benefits & Hospitality Register

The Governance Manager maintains the Gifts Register for all gift declarations (for Councillors, Staff and Contractors).

Gifts accepted or declined over $50 will be included in the register. The Register contains:

- · A description of the gift and its estimated value
- The name of the gift giver
- What was done with the gift (was it retained by the Councillor, handed to the council, etc.)
- Gifts declined
- Gifts offers from suppliers (irregular approaches from suppliers)

In accordance with the West Wimmera Shire Council Public Transparency Policy, the Gifts Register will be available on Council's website.

Consideration will be given to maintaining reasonable confidentiality in situations where public disclosure will prejudice a proposed development or business venture, legal advice or legal proceedings.

The Governance Manager is to monitor the Gifts Register and report six monthly to the Executive Team on any identified systematic pattern of gifts offered and accepted to ensure that unacceptable cultures do not develop within sections of the Council. A report is to be presented annually to the Audit & Risk Committee.

16. Contacts for further information

A conflict of interest resulting from the acceptance of a gift, benefit or hospitality is not always clear to those who have them. Councillors who are unsure about the acceptance of a gift, benefit or hospitality, or the application of this policy, should speak with the CEO.
